Latin American Studies Internships FALL 2017

Eje Mentors– in El Cajon
- Provide tutoring to middle school youth
- Enrich the life of students and prepare them for college

Requirements: Commit 3-5 hours/week to a student, some Spanish preferred.

Mixteco Cultural Exchange Program– in Lisa Vista
- Teach English or Spanish to indigenous Mixteco adults
- Provide tutoring and educational activities to Mixteco youths

Requirements: Available to teach Tuesday and Thursday evenings in Linda Vista from 6-8pm.

Pro Salud– in Tijuana
- Intern for a Mexican NGO
- Provide health education to some of the most vulnerable population within the region of Tijuana

Requirements: Travel to Tijuana once a week. Must be a graduate student or undergraduate senior. Ability to speak Spanish is required and a two semester commitment.

Unaccompanied Minors Shelter– in El Cajon
- Teach life skills and provide educational and recreational activates to refugee minors, while they await reunification with their families in the U.S or abroad
- Learn firsthand about the experience of youths who have immigrated to the U.S alone

Requirements: Must be 21 years of age, commit to working two semesters, and be able to speak Spanish.

Mid-City CAN (Community Advocacy Network)- in City Heights
- Teach principles of restorative justice to high school youth
- Work alongside community advocates for food justice in the school system

Requirement: Commit to 6-8 hours a week.

The Cultural Media Archive (CMA)
- Collect narratives that document how first generation youth, youth of color, and queer youth construct and engage notions of citizenship
- By participating in this applied project students will learn social science methodologies

Earn 3 units of credit after enrolling in LATAM 495/ 795 and attending Monday Lectures from 5-7pm.

Join our Fall 2017 informational meeting @
The Center for Latin American Studies AL-379

Tuesday September 5th 2-3pm and Thursday September 7th 11am-12pm

Or contact us for alternative times at clasintr@mail.sdsu.edu or 619-594-8748