The Sanders campaign has excited many people disgusted with the corporate domination of both political parties and seemingly offered a meaningful path forward for necessary political change. Revealingly, however, Sanders raises no structural challenges to the entrenched capitalist-imperialist global order and thus represents politics as usual. To learn more about the fundamental shortcomings of the two-party electoral system, including its perversion of genuine democracy, come hear two leading socialist activist-scholars share their unique perspectives on the 2016 US presidential race.

The event is hosted by San Diego State University's Political Science Department with support from the Fred J. Hansen Institute of World Peace. Our two speakers will discuss the profoundly undemocratic character of the two-party system, as well as offer an alternative vision of politics and democracy.

The other speaker is Paul Street, author of the book, They Rule: the 1 % Versus Democracy (Paradigm Publishers, 2014) and a frequent contributor to political journals (for his most recent commentary, see http://www.counterpunch.org/2016/04/12/ruling-class-games-and-qualifications-on-and-beyond-the-bernie-hillary-spat/.)

“RAPTURE, BLISTER, BURN” PRESENTED BY SAN DIEGO REPERTORY THEATER, APRIL 21, 2016- MAY 15, 2016

Heated discussion and hearty laughter are sure to result from Rapture, Blister, Burn -- Gina Gionfriddo’s white-hot play, which The New York Times called "intensely smart and immensely funny." Twice nominated for a Pulitzer Prize, Gionfriddo -- whose recent TV work includes writing for the Emmy-nominated Netflix series House of Cards -- has crafted a play that makes audiences howl and critics swoon. Rapture, Blister, Burn centers on Catherine, a rockstar feminist academic, who returns home to take care of her elderly mother. There, she encounters an old flame and an "ex" best friend, both of whom seem to be excelling at the kind of conventional life Catherine rejected. But first impressions can be very deceiving. This San Diego Repertory Theatre production explores how the lives of women have (and have not) changed, presenting a twisted view of feminism ... or feminism with a new twist.

MISSION FEDERAL ARTWALK, APRIL 30, 2016 – MAY 1, 2016

In April 2016 Mission Federal ArtWalk returns to Little Italy for the 32nd annual celebration of San Diego's rich arts and culture landscape. More than 300 fine artists show and sell their work at this annual festival that brings every facet of visual and performing arts together on April 30 and May 1.

This year, you'll find that the festival has a different footprint than in the past. This is due to construction in Little Italy. When the construction on Date Street is complete in 2017, there will be a beautiful no-vehicle "Piazza de la Familia" in the center of Little Italy. Meanwhile, we have created a layout that features many more artists along India Street than in previous years - a footprint we believe both artists and art lovers will enjoy. Due to this new layout, KidsWalk is in a new location, at the corner of India and Beech Streets.

ArtWalk activities help to support the mission of ArtReach San Diego, the not for profit organization that takes high quality visual art workshops into San Diego County K-6 schools, offering free programming to schools with no resources for art education.

When: 11:00AM-6:00PM
Where: Little Italy

ANNUAL FESTA DO ESPIRITU SANTO, MAY 13-15, 2016

In San Diego, the Festa do Espírito Santo is the oldest ethnic religious celebration, dating back to the time when the first families settled here in 1884 and was formally organized in 1910.

Today, as it has been since 1922, the Chapel next door to the UPSES Hall is used to house the Crown of the Holy Spirit during the Festa. On Pentecost Sunday devotees of the Holy Spirit visit the Chapel to pray and offer a donation of monies or Portuguese sweet breads (which are sold to raise funds) to assure the continuation of this unique ethnic and religious celebration.

Since 1922, our Portuguese colony here has made a procession (now a full parade) from our UPSES Hall chapel (i.e. capela) with our annual Queen Saint Isabel personage holding our community's Crown of the Holy Spirit, up to St. Agnes Church for a celebratory Mass followed by another. http://www.upses.com/upses-festa/
