Study Abroad Opportunities

SDSU'S CENTER FOR LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES IS OFFERING FOUR CROSS-BORDER CLASSES FOR FALL 2017: TAKE A CLASS IN TIJUANA DURING THE REGULAR SEMESTER!

The Center for Latin American Studies is proud to offer FOUR different opportunities to take a course in Tijuana during the regular academic year! Take advantage of SDSU’s unique location near the US-Mexico border and study in two countries in one semester. These are great opportunities for students who may not get an opportunity to study abroad, or for students who just can’t get enough of it!

- Enroll in all courses at NO additional tuition cost!
- All courses require a valid passport or border-crossing card and a Mexican visa (if applicable).
- All courses require purchase of SDSU’s international travel insurance. The cost per semester is: $60.00
- Courses meet international experience requirement for most majors!

For more information on these opportunities, contact: Lia Wesson at: lwesson-w@sdsu.edu
LATAM 320: Culture and Society of Tijuana

The first and last class sessions meet on campus, while the rest of the sessions take the form of field trips to different locales in Tijuana. The class will include both theory and practice, supplemented by presentations from invited guests and experts in the subject matter. The field trips to Mexico (Tijuana) are vital for attaining an on-site perspective of the subjects examined in class.

The field trips are led by Professor Victor Clark-Alfaro, SDSU Center for Latin American Studies Lecturer and Founder of the Binational Center for Human Rights. Professor Clark-Alfaro is a human rights activist and advocate that has over 30 years of experience in the border region defending the most vulnerable and marginalized populations.

This course is taught in English.

Section 1: Tuesdays 7pm – 9:40pm
Section 2: Wednesdays 7pm – 9:40pm

LATAM 350: Globalization and the Americas

The first and last class sessions meet on campus, while the rest of the course will take place in Tijuana. This course discusses the causes and consequences of international integration in the western hemisphere, including the United States and Canada with an emphasis on Latin America. Multiple dimensions of integration will be examined from a variety of disciplinary perspectives.

This course will be taught in English on the campus of the Universidad Autónoma de Baja California (UABC) in Tijuana, Mexico. The course will be taught by Professor David Wysocki Q. of SDSU with assistance from doctoral candidate Alejandro Monjaraz of UABC.

Class will meet at the Otay Mesa border crossing on class days and walk across the border. UABC will then provide transportation to campus.

Section 1: Tuesdays 4pm – 6:40pm

LATAM 550: The US/Mexico Border from the Latin American Perspective

The first and last class sessions meet on campus, while the rest of the sessions take the form of field trips to different locales in Tijuana. Students explore new communities and meet with a wide range of people in Tijuana to get an entirely new perspective on this city only a few miles to the south. The course is a series of field trips that allow the students to understand border and migration phenomena from a micro-perspective. Throughout the semester, you'll visit places such as the border's deportation processing center, the red light district, the offices of regional political party leaders, the county jail, the Secretary of Social Development, the house of the US Consul General of Mexico in Tijuana, etc. This course is a MUST for anyone that's interested in border issues, migration, immigration policy, binational issues, and so on.

The field trips are led by Professor Victor Clark-Alfaro, SDSU Center for Latin American Studies Lecturer and Founder of the Binational Center for Human Rights. Professor Clark-Alfaro is a human rights activist and advocate that has over 30 years of experience in the border region defending the most vulnerable and marginalized populations.

Class is in Spanish. Graduate students and advanced undergraduates may enroll.

Section 1: Thursdays 7:00pm – 9:40pm

Internships, Jobs, and Volunteer Opportunities

FALL 2017 LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES INTERNSHIPS

EJE Mentors: Interns will provide tutoring and activities to Middle School youth. This will help enrich the lives of these students, while preparing them for college. The internship takes place in a charter school in El Cajon.

Mixteco Cultural Exchange Program: Teach English or Spanish to indigenous Mixteco adults and provide tutoring/educational support to Mixteco youths. This is a great opportunity to learn about the Mixteco culture, practice your Spanish, and gain practical experience in language instruction. Internship is held in Linda Vista.

Unaccompanied Minors Shelter Program: Teach life skills and provide education and recreational activities to refugee minors while they await reunification with their families in the U.S. or abroad. Learn firsthand about the experience of youth who have immigrated to the U.S. alone, while helping them learn about American culture and practicing your Spanish. This internship is located close to campus.

Pro Salud Internship: Work for a Mexican NGO that provides comprehensive health and health education to some of the most vulnerable populations within the region of Tijuana. This is a great opportunity to see how health challenges are addressed in another country. The internship requires travel to Tijuana once a week.

Mid-City Can, Community Action Network: Teach principles of restorative justice to high school youth. Work alongside community advocates for Food Justice in the school system

United Way Internship: Provide case management support for chronically absent students in elementary schools and their families. With logistical support from the school site & clinical supervision & weekly coaching from United Way, interns work to understand the barriers to attendance that students and their families face, including housing/food transportation instability. Internship takes place in City Heights.
