Events by CLAS

CLAS SPRING 2018 COURSE OFFERING, LATAM 296: ELEMENTARY NAHUATL I

Nahuatl is a major Indigenous language spoken in Mexico today by more than a million people, the language spoken by the Aztecs and other Nahuatlaca of Mesoamerica.

Beginning Spring 2018, the Center for Latin American Studies will offer four units in Modern Huastecan, LATAM 296: Elementary Nahuatl I on T/TH 9-10:50AM. The Nahuatl language course is taught by a native-speaking instructor in Modern Huastecan Nahuatl. Course material will include linguistic and cultural content related to Nahua daily life.

Upon completion of the one-year beginning course, students will be able to advance to the intermediate level course provided during the school year or may enroll in a 6-week summer immersion program at the University of Zacatecas through the Center for LAS.

For more information, contact the Center for Latin American Studies at SDSU at clasgrad@mail.sdsu.edu.

LASSO STUDENT SUCCESS FEE SPRING 2018 EVENTS

UNDOCU SERIES: A CONVERSATION ON THE LIVES AND FUTURES OF THE UNDOCUMENTED COMMUNITY

The lives of undocumented residents are shrouded in stereotypes and misinformation. This project highlights the implications of the change in federal... policies through four events that humanize, explain, and predict what today's anti-immigrant policies will mean for all of us in the coming years. Please join us for this four-part series.

PART 1: CLINICA DE MIGRANTES FILM SCREENING, FEBRUARY 6, 2018

A documentary about the barriers the undocumented community faces when seeking healthcare. Clinica de Migrantes paints a compassionate portrait of patients at Puentes de Salud, many of whom left their families behind to perform physically exhausting labor in America for meager wages, and follows the tireless staffers who treat around 10,000 patients each year with limited space and little funding. This film initiates the dialogue that health care should be a human right.

Executive director Dr. Steve Larson and his team must find a way to keep their practice running despite obstacles at every turn. Join us for this film screening followed by a Q and A with Dr. Larson.

Date: Tuesday, February 6, 2018
Time: 5:30PM
Location: Conrad Prebys Aztec Student Union Theater

PART 2: UNDOCU SERIES PANEL, MARCH 1, 2018

A panel to discuss the implications of the current status of Deferred Action for Childhood Arrival (DACA). The panel will include professionals in the fields of economy, education and social work to discuss systematic and institutional inequities and the struggle for validation of undocumented voices.

Date: Thursday, March 1, 2018
Time: 4-6PM
Location: Conrad Prebys Aztec Student Union Theater

PART 3: ACTIVISM THROUGH ART, MARCH 14, 2018

An art show and lecture on activism through art from immigrant activists Julio Salgado and Yosimar Reyes. Both artists will present on the effectiveness of artistic methods and how they utilize them to empower the undocumented community. Julio uses theatrical performances and innovative paintings to expose the issues of the undocumented community. His approach touches upon anti-immigrant discourse, the realities of being undocumented, and what it means to be undocu-queer. Yosimar uses poetry to explore the themes of migration and sexuality. He has toured and presented in University campuses all over the United States, and is the co-founder of performance ensemble, La Maricolectiva, a community based performance group of queer undocumented poets.

Date: Wednesday, March 14, 2018
Location: Montezuma Hall
Time: 3-5PM
PART 4: INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR WORKSHOP, TBD

A workshop led by an independent contracting consultant, who will provide the tools to be an independent contractor and will address the barriers of work authorization for the undocumented community.

For more information, email Mireya or Juliana at undocusersSDSU@gmail.com.

SPRING 2018 COURSE OFFERING, PORT 306: PORTUGUESE AND BRAZILIAN CINEMA & CULTURE

In this course we watch and discuss some of the most influential Brazilian films, beginning with the period of “Cinema Novo” and up to contemporary acclaimed productions such as Central Station or City of God. We also analyze important Portuguese productions and authors, contemporary and classic, as well as films from African Lusophone countries, representative of an emerging production. Discussions focus both on the aesthetic languages of the films and their insights into national identities, including issues such as colonial and post-colonial social structures, European integration, racial, class and gender inequality, and democracy and authoritarianism.

In Spring 2018, the Department of Spanish and Portuguese Languages and Literature will offer 3 units in PORT 306: Portuguese and Brazilian Cinema and Culture, on Mondays 4-6:40PM. The course will be taught by Professor Ricardo Vasconcelos in English, films will include English subtitles. PORT 306 counts towards the Minor in Portuguese and Brazilian Studies and GER in Foundations of Learning, II.C. Humanities.

For more information, contact the Department of Spanish and Portuguese Languages and Literature at SDSU at spanport@sdsu.edu.

SPRING 2018 COURSE OFFERING, PH 700F: OBESITY ON THE BORDER

This course will cover up-to-date research and programs related to childhood and adult obesity in the U.S.-Mexico border region and compare prevention strategies from the US and Mexico. The course will be taught by faculty at both SDSU and UABC, which will provide an excellent opportunity to learn from experts from both countries.

The Graduate School of Public Health will offer 3 units in PH 700F (section 4) on Tuesdays 4-6:40PM.

Prerequisites: This course is open to graduate level students.
Requirements: The course will be taught at the UABC campus (Autonomus University of Tijuana) in Tijuana, Mexico. Students must be able to travel weekly to Tijuana to attend the class session. The course will be taught in English and Spanish. Spanish proficiency desired but not required.

CONFLICTED: TELLING THE STORIES OF CONFLICT AT HOME, ABROAD, AND IN THE HEART, FEBRUARY 22, 2018

What does it take to tell the stories of war, life inside an occupied territory, or political, cultural, and racial upheaval within our own borders? We've assembled a panel of writers who have gone to the heart of these conflicts in order to tell us what we need to hear and have paid a price for doing it.

We'll hear from Kelly McEvers, award-winning war correspondent for NPR and now co-host of the national program All Things Considered, and Al Letson, poet, playwright and host of Reveal, the Peabody award winning public radio program showcasing investigative reporting, and host and executive producer of the national program state of the Re:union. They will be joined by Iraq veteran and writer Brooke King, author of the forthcoming memoir Full Battle Rattle, and Jean Guerrero, author of the forthcoming Crux: A Cross-Border Memoir, and investigative reporter for KPBS' Fronteras.

Why does someone choose to write the most difficult stories? What about the inner conflicts these story-tellers confront and how do these shape the stories they tell us? These are just some of the questions we will explore with our panel members who have experienced and written about some of our world’s most challenging conflicts of the page, theater, film, or broadcast-sometimes more than one of those.

Internship Opportunities

SPRING 2018 LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES INTERNSHIP COURSE

The Center for Latin American Studies has contacts with several local organizations in the San Diego area who are looking for interns. Want to build your professional network? Looking for a class to take next semester? Check out our Spring 2018 Internship Opportunities:

EJE Mentors: Interns will provide tutoring and activities to Middle School youth. This will help enrich the lives of these students, while preparing them for college. The internship takes place in a charter school in El Cajon.

Mixteco Cultural Exchange Program: Teach English or Spanish to indigenous Mixteco adults and provide tutoring/educational support to Mixteco youths. This is a great opportunity to learn about the Mixteco culture, practice your Spanish, and gain practical experience in language instruction. Internship is held in Linda Vista.

Pro Salud Internship: Work for a Mexican NGO that provides comprehensive health and health education to some of the most vulnerable populations within the region of Tijuana. This is a great opportunity to see how health challenges are addressed in another country. The internship requires travel to Tijuana once a week.

Mid-City Can, Community Action Network: Teach principles of restorative justice to high school youth. Work alongside community advocates for Food Justice in the school system.

Cultural Media Archive: While completing your internship with the Cultural Media Archive you will be collecting narratives to document how first generating youth, youth of color, and queer youth, construct and engage in notions of citizenship. In addition, students will document how these general notions of citizenship are then influenced by and through youth participation, and reactions to practices such as racism and discrimination. By interning at the CMA students will learn social science methodologies such as data collection, how to code data, and how to digitally archive data. Internship will be held at SDSU.

United Way Internship:
Provide case management support for chronically absent students in elementary schools and their families. With logistical support from the school site & clinical supervision & weekly coaching from United Way, interns work to understand the barriers to attendance that students and their families face, including housing/food transportation instability. Internship takes place in City Heights.

For more information attend an info. session:

1. Wednesday, January 24, 2018 @ 2-3PM in AL-379
2. Monday, January 29, 2018 @ 2-3PM in AL-379

For questions, visit our website or contact the CLAS Internship Coordinator, Juliana Huaroc, at clasintr@mail.sdsu.edu.

PUBLIC HEALTH GRANT AND DATA MANAGEMENT VOLUNTEER/INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

The Institute for Behavioral & Community Health (BACH) bridges communities and science to conduct meaningful and relevant public health research that leads to positive health outcomes and sustainable health programs in a variety of settings: family, homes, grocery stores, recreation centers, churches, restaurants, research offices, and clinics.

We are seeking 1-2 volunteers to assist with grant submissions and work on data-related activities with:

1. El Valor de Nuestra Salud (EV) was funded by the National Cancer Institute to implement and evaluate an in-store intervention designed to increase the purchase and consumption of healthy foods among customers of Latino grocery stores.
2. Kids' Choice Restaurant Program (KCRP) was funded by the Eunice K. Shriver National Institute of Child Health and Human Development to work with independent restaurants to modify the menu items offered and promoted to kids with the goal of increasing healthy options for kids when dining out.

3. Our Choice / Nuestra Opcion (Our Choice) was funded by the CDC designed to reduce childhood obesity rates by changing policies, systems and environments that affect children's health in Imperial County.

Please email your inquiry to Julie Pickrel, Project Manager, at jpickrel@mail.sdsu.edu. Include “internship inquiry” in the subject line and include your availability and a resume in your email, if available. Course credit may be available; check with your advisor.

Scholarship Opportunities

GRADUATE STUDENT TRAVEL FUND SPRING 2018, APPLICATIONS DUE FEBRUARY 1, 2018

The Graduate Student Travel Fund (GSTF) supports travel associated with scholarly research and creative activities. THE CHANCELLOR'S DOCTORAL INCENTIVE PROGRAM,
APPLICATIONS DUE FEBRUARY 9, 2018

The California State University (CSU) Chancellor's Doctoral Incentive Program (CDIP) aims to increase the number of promising doctoral students applying for future CSU instructional faculty positions by offering financial assistance in the form of a loan and mentorship by CSU faculty.

Established in 1987, the CSU CDIP is the largest program of its kind in the United States.
As of June 2016 the program has loaned $49 million to 2,081 doctoral students enrolled in universities throughout the nation. 1,275 participants have successfully earned doctoral degrees, and over half (735 participants) have subsequently obtained employment in CSU instructional faculty positions.

Who is eligible?

- New or continuing students who will be in doctoral programs at accredited universities anywhere in the United States during the 2018-2019 academic year.
- All doctoral students at accredited institutions who are not probationary or tenured faculty members in the CSU.
- Part time or full time Lecturers may also apply.

Application deadline is Friday, February 9, 2018.

Additional info. can be found here.

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS STUDY ABROAD SCHOLARSHIP,
APPLICATIONS DUE FEBRUARY 23, 2018

SDSU students who have applied, or have been accepted, to participate in a study abroad program outside the United States are encouraged to apply for the Associated Students Study Abroad Scholarship. Students who will be conducting research outside the United States are eligible to receive the scholarship. Students who will be studying or conducting research in a U.S. territory also are eligible to apply. Application materials will be reviewed by a committee composed primarily of current SDSU students, with an Associated Students staff member serving as the scholarship committee chairperson.
Applications are accepted for the Associated Students Study Abroad Scholarship during two distinct application periods each year, once during the fall semester and once during the spring semester. Students who plan to participate in a study abroad program during the current academic year will submit their applications during the fall application period. Students who plan to participate in a study abroad program during the summer or the subsequent academic year will submit their applications during the spring application period.

Please note that you must complete BOTH the online application (including the essay) AND submit the Travel Waiver and Supplemental Application forms online in order for your application to be considered complete.

Application deadline is Friday, February 23, 2018.

RICHARD E. GREENLEAF VISITING SCHOLAR TRAVEL AWARD, APPLICATIONS DUE MARCH 31, 2018

The University of New Mexico’s Latin American library holdings are nationally acclaimed, and regularly attract the attention of local, national, and international scholars.

Each year the Latin American and Iberian Institute (LAII) partners with UNM University Libraries to offer Richard E. Greenleaf Visiting Library Scholar awards to support scholars who work with these premier collections.

Recipients of the award work to promote scholarly use of the Latin American and Iberian collections, focusing on objectives with specific relevance to the UNM Library collections. Scholars will have the opportunity to present their research to faculty and students during their visit to UNM and to submit a brief report. The LAII will assist awardees in identifying and networking with UNM scholars in relevant fields.

The award honors Dr. Richard E. Greenleaf, distinguished scholar of colonial Latin American history, and his extensive career in teaching, research, and service.

The 2018 application deadline is Saturday, March 31, 2018.
